SUPPORT WORKER

INTRODUCTION

Hello, my name is Natalie — but you can call me Nat!

I'm a dependable, compassionate and enthusiastic person with a strong passion for supporting others to reach their goals. I take pride in building positive connections and helping individuals feel encouraged, included and confident in working towards their personal aspirations.

My background

I have six years of experience in the education sector, supporting individuals with different abilities, learning styles and needs. This has strengthened my communication skills, patience and understanding, and taught me the importance of adapting support to each individual.

Outside of work

I enjoy being creative through crafts and making new things. I'm a big sports fan, particularly AFL, and love getting involved in games, activities and challenges. I'm always happy to try something new and encourage others to have a go too.

Experience supporting individuals with

I bring a positive and encouraging approach to my work and aim to provide support that is respectful, person-centred and focused on each participant's individual needs, interests and goals.

AVAILABILITY Weekend supports, Social Saturdays and School Holiday Programs.

"I enjoy supporting participants through activities that are meaningful to them — whether that's getting active, being creative, trying a new game or simply spending quality time together."

I look forward to getting to know the people I support and being part of their journey with Little Things Support Services.
