

Ashleigh

SUPPORT WORKER

INTRODUCTION

My name is Ashleigh — but you can call me Ash!

I'm a compassionate and dedicated professional with experience in disability support and Early Childhood Education. I am a warm, friendly and positive person who enjoys creating genuine connections with the people I support. I have a vibrant personality, a good sense of humour, and love sharing a laugh.

My background

Over the past four years, I have worked in Early Childhood Education, with a particular focus on supporting children with additional needs. This has strengthened my understanding of patience, encouragement, communication and support tailored to each individual.

Outside of work

My family is very important to me. I enjoy spending time with my family, walking, going to the gym, camping, socialising with friends and exploring new experiences — staying active and making the most of my time with the people around me.

Experience supporting individuals with

Cerebral Palsy

Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD) Levels 1, 2 & 3

ADHD

Pathological Demand Avoidance (PDA)

Oppositional Defiant Disorder (ODD)

OCD

I also have basic Auslan skills, which I continue to develop as part of my commitment to effective communication and inclusive support.

I bring patience, understanding, encouragement and compassion to my work, and aim to support each participant in a way that respects their individual needs, choices, personality and goals. I enjoy helping people feel confident, included and supported while encouraging independence wherever possible.

"Feeling comfortable, respected and supported is an important part of building positive relationships."

I look forward to getting to know the people I support, building positive relationships and being part of their journey with Little Things Support Services.
