SUPPORT WORKER

INTRODUCTION

Hi, my name is Susie!

I'm a caring, patient, dependable and committed person who genuinely enjoys helping and supporting others. I take pride in giving my best to everything I do and believe in approaching each task with a positive attitude, compassion and a willingness to help.

My background

I have five years of experience across retail and hospitality, and over the past year, childcare has helped me further develop my communication skills, confidence and independence. Working with people from different backgrounds has taught me the importance of listening, patience and adapting my approach.

Outside of work

I'm creative and adventurous and enjoy crafts, drawing, music and trying new things. I love animals, roller coasters and getting out on an adventure, and I enjoy a good practical joke and a laugh! I'm a passionate sports fan — Go Storm in the NRL and Go Saints in the AFL!

Experience supporting individuals with

Intellectual Disability

Cerebral Palsy

Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD) Levels 1, 2 & 3

Global Developmental Delay

Scoliosis

Chromosome Deletion Syndrome

ADHD

Generalised Anxiety Disorder (GAD)

PTSD

Oppositional Defiant Disorder (ODD)

I'm always open to trying something new and enjoy encouraging others to explore their interests and have new experiences too. I aim to provide support that is respectful, patient and person-centred, while taking the time to understand each participant's individual interests, preferences, communication style and goals.

"Whether it's getting creative, heading out into the community, enjoying a favourite activity or simply spending time together, I believe support should be positive, enjoyable and meaningful."

I look forward to building positive connections with the people I support, sharing new experiences and being part of their journey with Little Things Support Services.
